HENDERSON'S SPREE ENDS WITH SUICIDE

City Attorney of Memphis Kills Himself While in Despondent Mood Caused by Drink.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 25.-W. B Henderson, city attorney of Memphis and a son of Vice Mayor B. M. Hender-Germantown, Tenn., a short distance from Memphis.

Henderson had been on a protracted spree and left a note to Louis Thompone, whom he was visiting at Corrections of the control of the c son, whom he was visiting at Germantown, saying that he could not go on living as he had been and that he considered suicide the only honorable method of ending it all. He also left long notes to his mother and father. He shot himself in the temple.

Mr. Henderson was a former law partmember of the law firm of Patterson, Neely & Henderson, Congressman M. R. Patterson being associated with him. He was prominent in social cucles and was considered one of the most talented young lawyers in this city. He had been city attorney for about a year.

DETROIT LAD PROVES A WALKING ARSENAL

Carried a Rifle and Two Revolvers, a Dirk in His Boot, and a Pocketful of Cartridges.

DETROIT, Mich., April 25.-Carrying a rifle and with two revolvers in his pockets, a dirk in his boot and a pocketful of cartridges, Alton Kelly, aged fifteen, of St. Johnsville, N. Y., was arrested at the Michigan Central Railway rested at the Michigan Central Railway Bakers, Large oven. Only $3.90. A station this morning. Dime novel stories Eberly's Sons, 718 7th nw. of Western life caused him to leave his home Saturday morning and to start for the Wild West.

The boy was employed by Delos Fry, dairyman, four miles from St. Johnsville. Saturday morning while his em-ployer and his family were in the city, Kelly disappeared. A gold watch be-longing to Mrs. Kelly and a check for $36 also disappeared. The check was cashed, and Kelly bought the rifle, which he picked out several months

FINDS RICH GOLD MINE AND DIES ON THE SPOT

Good Luck Kills Prospector, Who Has Spent Years in Fruit-

fruitlessly wandering over the hills for years, Patrick Sullivan, an old prospector, died upon discovering a rich mine. It is supposed that the excite-

Sullivan had been absent from Park City for some time on one of his prospecting tours, and nothing was heard of him until today, when Moroni Morris, another prospector, came in from the mountains, a dozen miles from Park

City. He brought with him samples of rich silver-lead ore.

A few days ago, he said, he noticed a tunnel in the side of a mountain. It went in only about six feet. Entering it he found at the end a man's body, pick in hand, lying in front of a vein of metal. The body was Sullivan's.

To read the rich state of the sound of the silver was injured about the body will a grossing. M. S.

INVENTOR HAS DEVICE TO SAVE BATTLESHIP

Naval Constructor Ready to Prevent Repetition of the Missouri Disaster.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 25. There will be no danger of a repetition of the Missouri disaster on the new battleship Ohio, which is nearing comple tion at the Union Iron Works. is to be installed at once upon the Ohio which will prevent flames or other attendants of an explosion within her tur-rets from extending to the handling room below and placing the ship in of the magazine.

To a naval constructor, John G. Taw- to his home unassisted. resy, of this city, is due credit for the new device, in the shape of an auto-matic shutter, which the Navy Department has ordered to be placed in the This shutter is a heavy placed over the opening in the turret, through which the ammunition is pass-ed to the guns. The shutter will always be closed except when the charge is being passed up.

In this land of truck gardening and from Denmark and onions from Egypt strikes one as rather strange, but fro what was told yesterday there seems to be no doubt that Mobile people have been eating these same vegetables. "This time last year," said a Commerce Street merchant, "cabbage were selling for $1.50 per crate; but now the market near all the cabbage we are getting nowadays come from Denmark. Yes, imported from Denmark," he answered response to the surprise expressed his hearer. "Why, I have onlons in by his hearer. "Why, I have onlons in my garden that are growing nicely that came from Egypt. Yes, sir; last spring one of our commission houses got a shipment of onlons from Egypt when they were so high, and I bought a peck of them and planted them, just to see what they would bring; they are growing nicely out in my garden."—Mobile Register.
